Especially for the brides-to-be

Recently, models from Catwalk Production participation in bridal fairs held in prominent hotels in and around the city area. One of the bridal fair was held in Le Meridien Hotel where the models showed off the array of clothes and attires by Persona Boutique. They also showed off diamonds by KK Diamonds.

Catwalk Production spokesperson Bakhri Arfah says he deal in various types of fashion shows including bridal gowns, traditional and otherwise.

"We are interested in showing off our local products, such as Batiks and songkets. I believe that these items have high market value as they are made in Malaysia and should be promoted to tourists."

"I hope that establishments especially those that deal with tourists will hold more fashion show so that boutiques and textile shops will be promoted to tourists. It will also help to put Kota Kinabalu as a shopping destination," he says. Bakhri also runs a Malay Wedding Bridal shop and Planner called Sri Andaman, that promotes Malay wedding dresses.
