Lembah Impian Country Homes located in Kandazon Penampang is ready to welcome visitors in conjunction with the Visit Malaysia 2007. Actually they are ever ready, but more so during the VMY campaign this year.

The country homes cater to holidaymakers and guests who wish to have peace and tranquillity, away from the usual exertion of running a home. This is especially true for those who live in cities and have to deal with the hustle and bustle of city life. But then again they also cater for members of the business community who wish to carry out transactions in a quiet and calm setting.

In Lembah Impian, which means Dream Valley, the guest is the One. They can be there for a much needed rest, to quietly finish that book, to swot for an exam or to finish that important business modules or just a change of scenery. It is up to you, but the fact remains; Lembah Impian can be synonymous to Peace, Tranquillity and Serenity. All these elements are there...and of course, you get pampered. No cooking, no washing, no alarm clocks....

Be that as it may, Lembah Impian is a home away from home, as it has the comfort of home without having the trappings of housekeeping responsibilities.

It is located about 20 minutes away from Kota Kinabalu, built within five acres of land, surrounded by a nicely landscaped garden. During my recent visit I notice that a swimming pool is being built as well as a cabana. So I think guests will also enjoy these facilities soon.

The home actually comprise of two large houses each housing ten rooms and five chalets. The ambience is of quiet luxury with tasteful furnishing and attractive paintings. The halls and terraces around the homes are quite spacious, too. There will be additional rooms soon, says proprietor Fauziah Ghani.

The dining room is quite roomy and accord diners with a pleasant view. Food is cooked according to the needs and wants of the guests but they do serve buffet too.

Meeting and seminars facilities are also available, so if you want to have a motivation seminar or a talk, they can accommodate you.

Actually you can even have a wedding there. Get the management to arrange a nice package for you and they will do it with much pleasure. Their speciality is garden weddings, the most romantic setting one can wish for.

For overseas tourists who wish to see the local way of life, this place is the perfect place to go as the villagers around are warm and friendly. They are very accommodating and will not deny you a few minutes chat.
