A group of prestigious bridal shoppes and photography studios flown in from Taiwan, Singapore and Hong Kong joined Sutera Harbour Resort in a Top Asian Wedding Designer Showcase recently at Centre Point's Palm Square.

A project of Singapore-based wedding event organiser Full House Communications Pte Ltd, the event also gave visitors the opportunity to browse and purchase copies of Singapore's premier English bridal magazine, Wedding & Travel.

Having pre-wedding photos professionally taken in locations outside of one's own hometown has garnered popularity as of late, giving couples the opportunity to capture those beautiful moments in gorgeous destinations around the world. Hong Kong, Singapore, Taiwan and Malaysia are considered some of the best venues for wedding photography, owing to the rich variety of locales and settings the regions have to offer.

Participating wedding photography studios and shoppes included Bluebay Dream Wedding, NA-ZA Bridal Photography and France Star, who all offer tour packages that offer the best opportunities for the perfect photo-op.

Sutera Harbour attended to offer its own wedding planning services through Charming Weddings. A variety of promotional offers are in store for couples who confirm their wedding bookings before March 31, 2010, with weddings set from anywhere between February 1 to December 31, 2010.

Numerous complimentary benefits come with early confirmations of wedding bookings. Couples can choose from one of many exclusive offers, such as a complimentary table for a minimum guarantee of 40 tables for a wedding at the Pacific Sutera or a one night stay inclusive of breakfast for the parents of the bride and groom in two deluxe rooms.
