An Afternoon Delight at Tangerine

The Tangerine Restaurant at The Palace Hotel introduces its special Saturday menu, a high tea promotion they lovingly call Afternoon Delight. Offering a splendid array of hawker stall favourites, snacks and desserts, Afternoon Delight also gives diners uncommon incentives on a weekly basis, and this time, it's a free car wash.

You read that right. From 3pm to 6pm on Saturday, treat yourself to a mixed selection of local and international tidbits at Tangerine, while a crowd of lovely ladies, made up of Palace's own cheerful staff, works its magic and polishes your car into a sparkling beauty.

Items at the buffet include a variety of cakes and pastries, fruit tarts, truffles, and Malaysian snacks. Chinese dim sum options are prepared on order, with sticky rice, dumplings and chicken feet all freshly steamed and served.

A number of live cooking stations, placed on the balcony just overlooking the hotel's swimming pool, provide a few more delicious choices, and diners are free to pick up as many bowls of curry laksa and ais kacang as they like. Roti is also made fresh on the spot, served with some delicious dhal. Do pick up a glass of teh tarik to sip while you wait.

Look forward to getting into a good-as-new car once you're done, a tidy little bonus to go with a great meal. Afternoon Delight is available for RM30 for adults and RM15 for children aged six to 11.

Palace is also organising its first major entertainment event with its Kadazan-Dusun Karaoke Challenge. Held at the hotel's Glamorous KTV and Wine Lounge, contestants can look forward to cash prizes and return flights to Singapore, Kuala Lumpur and Brunei, with other attractive surprises for the top nine finalists.

Registration ends at 5pm on April 30, 2010, and entry forms are available at the hotel's Communication Department. A fee of RM50 is required for registration, and the contest will only accept 36 contestants. For more information, call The Palace Hotel at 088-217222.
