

Novotel and 1Borneo take Earth Guest Day to Kinarut

Every year, all members of the Accor family of companies assemble for Earth Guest Day in 77 countries around the world. In Accor's own version of the international celebration of Earth Day, over 150,000 employees are mobilised to gather and offer local assistance to a variety of charities and projects.

Novotel 1Borneo, the first and only Accor hotel in Sabah, joined forces with representatives from 1Borneo Hypermall to visit the Sri Pritchard Home, lending aid in support of providing a balanced diet for its residents and also making small but significant changes around the area to help in local development.

The team of 35 employees carried out a number of beneficial activities for the home's residents. Nutritious meals care of Novotel's chefs were distributed among Sri Pritchard's 78 tenants, including porridge and an amount of freshly baked pastries.

The group also purchased and planted a total of 12 manila palm trees, all of which were planted at the Sri Pritchard Home. Three of the trees were planted near the home's clinic to provide shade, while the other nine were placed along the establishment's uphill entrance.

Cleaning of specified areas was also carried out by the joint team, covering the clearing of accumulated dried leaves and drain cleaning.
