

The Square debuts new pizzas

By NAZRI NOOR

Novotel Kota Kinabalu 1Borneo's The Square Restaurant recently diversified its already colourful lineup of recipes with a very new (and coincidentally, very delicious) range of thin-crust pizzas.

Taking steps to expand further from its core philosophy of serving great international and local food, The Square buffs up its menu muscle with four carefully selected flavours that bring out the best of the pizzas' crisp crust and rich tomato base.

The Margarita Pizza, priced at RM15, definitely does the classic recipe justice. Bits of basil sprinkled with cheese over a seasoned tomato sauce combine to create an excellent homage to this favourite flavour, resulting in a delightful pizza dish that is delicious and pleasantly inexpensive.

The other three pizzas offered at Square are available for RM25 each, owing to the generous amount of toppings found in each flavour. The Square Chicken Pizza is the restaurant's version of a Hawaiian, mixing meaty portions of chicken with juicy chunks of pineapple and quite a bit of minced garlic.

Borneo Seafood Pizza lives up to its name with an attractive combination of pre-seasoned fish, shrimps, squid rings, onions and sliced capsicum. One might generally consider seafood fairly light, but be warned, this dish is as filling as it is delicious!

We highly recommend the fourth flavour. Headhunter Turkey Ham Pizza is a varied blend of turkey ham, chicken ham, beef bacon and green olives, essentially Square's own version of the more commercial meat lover's pizza.

The Square's new pizzas are served a la carte and are part of Head Chef Mohd Irwan Lie Sabli Zinin and Chinese Chef Chin Hon Vun's efforts to make the restaurant's array of dishes even more tempting. The pair are also hard at work on a special Chinese-themed buffet promotion coming this June.
