you will actually dine under the stars. Some diners may like to watch television while eating. They will not be disappointed as the centre has a perfectly good Astro service. No chances of it being interrupted through power disruption either as there is a stand by generator available. By the way, the security there is excellent. You will not be bugged by peddlers selling watches, sun-shades and the likes. Getting interrupted in mid chew by these salespeople can disrupt one's appetite, especially when even vigorous shakes of the head are not a deterrent.

Overall the centre is a fabulous place to dine as almost all the needs of patrons have been taken into considerations. It is a commendable place to bring tourists who love seafood, as they will not only enjoy the food and the ambience but also the cultural performances.

The director of the centre's management, Sebumi Magnetik Sdn Bhd, Alex Yong stated that this centre is the largest live seafood venue in Kota Kinabalu and he may well be right. So if you are at the vicinity at the moment, drop by for food; bring your guests, family and friends there.
