Shangri-La's Tanjung Aru Resort, (STAR) Kota Kinabalu collected 33 pints of blood during the annual blood donation campaign held recently at the Grand Ballroom.

This blood donation drive was jointly organized with the Blood Bank of Queen Elizabeth Hospital in the hope that it will help save lives of those in need of blood transfusions. Staff from various departments demonstrated their enthusiasm and participated in the blood donation.

Param Sivasamy, the resort's director of human resources in statement thanked the blood donors, his colleagues from all departments who supported and joined in the effort to garner blood, regardless of whether they were successful or unsuccessful donors.

"We also would like to thank the staff from the Blood Bank Queen Elizabeth Hospital for their assistance and we wish them every success in the good cause they are serving," he said adding that they look forward to organizing another blood donation drive at this resort.
