

Shangri-La's Rasa Ria Resort and Dalit Bay Golf Club and Spa's General Manager Alain Borgers, is pleased to announce the appointment of Catherine Ng as the resort's new Executive Housekeeper.

Catherine, from Selangor, has about 14 years' housekeeping experience in the hospitality industry. She started her career in Florida, USA, before moving on to several international hotel groups in Kuala Lumpur. Prior to joining Shangri-La's Rasa Ria Resort, Catherine was based at Shangri-La's Mactan Resort and Spa in Cebu, the Philippines.

"I am excited to be back with Shangri-La Hotels and Resorts after taking a break for more than a year. Sabah is a beautiful state and the people are renowned for their friendliness and warm hospitality. I look forward to working with my team to prepare for the opening of the resort's additional 90 rooms in the new Ocean Wing in late 2007," said Catherine.

As Executive Housekeeper of the resort, Catherine is responsible for the planning, organisation and supervision of cleaning and maintenance work throughout the hotel, including the 330 guest rooms, public areas, back-of-the-house, linen and uniforms. She is also responsible for the financial costs of the department, including labour and all expenditure.
