attend the three-day carnival which will celebrate the Grand Bazaar, the Kulintang Fest and the Cultural carnival, to be held at the township.

The Klias Assemblyman Datuk Seri Panglima Haji Lajim Haji Ukin said the festival hoped to promote the district as a tourism destination and to complement the Government effort to promote tourism in conjunction with the Visit Malaysia Year 2007 (VMY 2007).

Efforts are being made to enable these activities to be listed in Sabah Tourism Board's calendar of events.

The event can be of great attraction as various local products will be displayed such as food, drinks and local handicrafts.

Other exhibitions include government agencies and cars while activities include buffalo races.

These activities are great attractions among guests. The four-wheel drive competition is also a hit with participations from Brunei, Sarawak, Singapore and the Philippines.

A beauty pageant will also be held with a bevy of beauties are expected to take the stage and parade their traditional costume.

A stage shows will present local artists from the Academy Fantasia (AF) with a rendition of songs.

This will culminate in a firework display.

Beaufort is a quiet town about 90 kilometres south of Kota Kinabalu. It is located by the Padas River and periodically suffer flash floods.
