

STAR celebrates senior staff

Shangri-La's Tanjung Aru Resort (STAR), Kota Kinabalu recently paid tribute to 71 staff at the hotel's "Long Service Awards 2007" presentation held at the resort's Tanjung Room. The extravagant dinner was themed "red and black" and all invited staff were elegantly dressed in their best outfits to match the theme.

During the event, 18 employees received awards for five years of service, 36 employees received their 10 years service awards, 12 staff received their 15 years service awards and five staff received awards for their 20 years of loyal service. Among the prizes given away to the staff were gold pendants, service pins and certificates.

Some high-spirited staff took home attractive prizes including a complimentary one night stay for two people with breakfast included at Shangri-La's Tanjung Aru Resort, Kota Kinabalu, buffet dinner at Café TATU for two, buffet dim sum lunch at Shang Palace for two, steamboat dinner at Coco-Joe's for two, and tableside BBQ at Coco-Joe's also for two people.

Other highlights of the evening included entertainment by the Rush Hour band and a "Sweet Memories" slide show.

"This is a special occasion because we give something back to those who have been dedicated and loyal to the resort for a long time," said Ulf Bremer, the resort's general manager.

"Here at Shangri-La's Tanjung Aru Resort, we sell the ultimate experience to the guests and it would not be possible without the employees' input," he said.
