Old World Charm in a Modern City

LOCATION: Jesselton Point, downtown Kota Kinabalu.

LANDMARKS: Wisma Sabah, Grand Port View building, marine police and custom offices

GETTING THERE: For tourists residing at Le Meridien Kota Kinabalu or Hyatt Regency Kinabalu, it is definitely within walking distance

For those of you living at The Magellan Sutera, The Pacific Sutera or Shangri-la Tg Aru, it is best to get a taxi which will set you back anywhere between RM10 to RM15 per journey.

If your latest memory of Jesselton Point goes back more than 12 months, its time to take a second look. This place has been transformed and has now earned its position as one of the new places to spend an evening.

You can't get a better waterfront setting than Jesselton point, its practically over the bay, looking over Tunku Abdul Rahman Marine Park which consists of the five islands, namely Pulau Gaya, Pulau Sapi, Pulau Manukan, Pulau Sulug and Pulau Mamutik.

During the day, the ferry terminal is operational, equipped with comfortable chairs and cooling air-conditioning. The boat reception counters are informative when it comes to arranging
