

By ANNA VIVIENNE

Christmas is just a couple of days away. Revellers are waiting excitedly to celebrate the auspicious occasion in their own way.

For Nexus Resort Karambunai, the celebratory air is apparent as the Christmas tree is already shining brightly and the Gingerbread House is already tempting revellers with the most delicious of scents.

As always, the festive season brings out only the best at Nexus Resort as its many food and beverage outlets are brightened up with decorations and special menus for the most memorable of dining experiences.

For celebrants at Nexus, traditional festive dishes and treats will be available on the eve of Christmas and New Year as well as on the day itself. For the Christmas celebrations, come and taste chestnuts freshly roasted over an open fire and sip on some Glue Wine, a delicious concoction of red wine, fruit juice and spices such as cinnamon, juniper and cloves. If you have not tried this before, make sure you don't miss out on this unique beverage at Nexus.

For fine dining aficionados, there will be special set menus at Olives Mediterranean Restaurant over Christmas and New Year. If you dine at Olives on New Year's Eve, your dinner will be inclusive of unlimited house pouring wine and a party pack.

If you want a wide variety of dishes, The Penyu and The Kingfisher buffets offer international and Malaysian cuisine respectively with some special festive treats added in.

Nexus' popular all-you-can-eat Dim Sum promotion will be back this holiday season on Christmas Day, New Year's Eve and New Year's Day.

The delicate textures, freshness and variety of Noble House's dim sum are touted as one of the best in Kota Kinabalu so you should treat yourself and your family to a special meal together this Christmas. Partake of dim sum and then some.

Carollers who will entertain diners over Christmas will further enhance the festive atmosphere. Their songs will definitely cheer and entertain revellers at that time.

To boot this, Santa Claus will be present to entertain children.

For in-house guests, there will be a children's Christmas Party and New Year's Eve ballroom gala event.

The year will literally end with a bang this year at Nexus Resort. The Sunset New Year's Eve Beach Party will be held at Sunset Bar & Grill with a five-course dinner, live music, campfires by the beach and fun activities for adults and children. A fireworks display will bring 2007 to a close and welcome in a brand new year – 2008.

So if you want to have a merry Christmas and a happy New Year, go to Nexus Resort Karambunai and enjoy their offerings.

By the way, Nexus Resort Karambunai nestles on 3,335 acres in the northeast of Kota Kinabalu city, showcasing a six-km private white sand beach, 485 guestrooms including six luxury villas, eight restaurants and bars, three freeform swimming pools, an 18-hole golf course, gymnasium, squash and tennis courts, the exclusive Borneo Spa, the Lagoon Park, children's club, 75-acre nature park, a grand ballroom and selection of meeting rooms.

Christmas at Nexus

