Other choices of main dishes include the fish and chips, grilled fish fillet, lamb chop and salmon steak. For those who prefer eating something light for a meal, go for one of the outlet's five types of sandwiches. Try the Puccia Al Tonno, sandwich served with fresh lettuce, tomatoes, and tuna fish with thousand island Sauce, or the Puccia Tollo; a type served with fresh lettuce, tomatoes, sautéed mushroom, artichoke hearts, marinated chicken and cheese with Thousand island Sauce.

There is also the Puccia Prosciutto which has fresh lettuce, tomatoes and smoked turkey ham with Thousand island Sauce, the Puccia Salami with fresh lettuce, tomatoes, baked salami and fresh onion rings with Thousand island Sauce and the Puccia Salmone which is served with smoked salmon with lettuce, onion rings and sauce.

The vast selection of food offered in Pizza Ria is truly amazing and you just have to be there to believe it. They are open from 11am to 11pm daily.

Apart from being a tremendously incredible dining outlet, Pizza Ria also serves as a venue for personal gatherings like birthday parties or a family get-together.

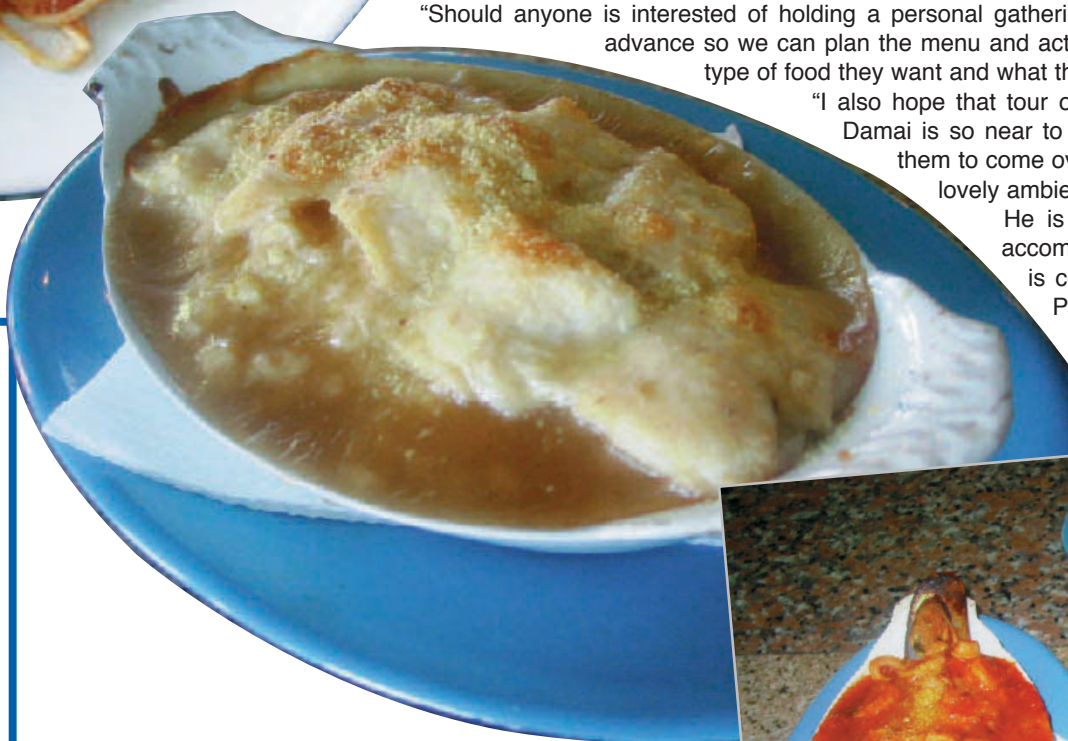

Nestor Suan, one of the outlet's senior staff, who is also a chef, says that the restaurant can accommodate up to 180 people for any functions.

"Should anyone is interested of holding a personal gathering here, they have to inform us two days in advance so we can plan the menu and activities with them. We would like to know what type of food they want and what their budget like.

"I also hope that tour operators and tourists can come and visit us.

Damai is so near to Kota Kinabalu, that it will not be problem for them to come over. Our food is great and the restaurant has a lovely ambience. We have everything diners require."

He is quite right at that. The staff is friendly and accommodating. The food is great and the restaurant is cosy. So the next time you are in Damai, visit Pizza Ria. You may well become a regular.
