Sugandoi (Singing Contest), Mipulos (Arm Wrestling), Cultural performance, and lucky draws among others. Among the invited guests were Datin Aminah Ambrose who was Chief Judge for the statewide Kaamatan Festival 2008 beauty pageant, Jeffrey Ekol member or KDCA's Supreme Council and Velvet of AF4 fame who were also the judges for the Unduk Ngadau and Sugandoi respectively. The VIPs and the guests took the opportunity to sample Sabah local delicacies such as the hinava or pickled fish and Bambangan, preserved pickled fruit of the local wild mango, and hinompuka, dessert made of glutinous rice flour. Borneo Arts dancers did their part by performing cultural performances such as the sumazau, magu-natip/anggalang and limbai. The audience was also entertained with a mini-musical which was staged by UNITAR Dance Club. The mini-musical depicted the Huminodun legend - how the Creator God Kinoingan sacrificed his only daughter by transforming her body parts into paddy plants so that the human race had food. Meanwhile, the Sugandoi competition was won by Saldivianna Wences, while Charlie Rayner Justin emerged as the champion for the Mipulos Competition. The winner who stole the hearts of many and walked away with the title of UNITAR Sabah Unduk Ngadau 2008 was Lyora Kok, 21 years old. Cynthia Wilhelmina Themothy, 23 was first runner up while third place went to Janet Jahudin, 19.
