'T'is the season! The month of December is a time for celebration and reflection, as we look forward to new beginnings and reminisce the last 12 months. This month's Feature article (p.10) will give you an insight on Sabah's exciting events and ideas on what to do and where to go throughout the year. But for starters, check out what's going on in Sabah for the month of December (p.2-p. 5), as we celebrate the yuletide season. Restaurants, hotels and resorts have plenty of activities and special offers lined up for Christmas and the New Year, so be sure to check out the festivities with your family and friends. Not to be missed is the National Level Christmas Day Open House on December 29th. The Open House is a Malaysian practice whereby relatives and friends visit each other during various celebrations. The host warmly welcomes guests and serves a mouthwatering line-up of goodies for all to enjoy. This month, everyone is invited to the large-scale Open House right here in Kota Kinabalu where you will be entertained all night long by Christmas carols, lively dance performances and, of course, plenty of food for all to enjoy!

Looking for 'makan'? Our Eating Out section (p.7) will give you some ideas on where to tickle your taste-buds. If it's great seafood in a unique atmosphere you want, we suggest the Kampung Nelayan Floating Seafood Restaurant. For a hearty meal in the heart of the city of Kota Kinabalu, swing by Rainforest Café. In the season of giving and receiving, why not give your gift a Sabahan touch? Drop by Kadaiku (p.14) for unique gift ideas, be it a basket of Sabah Tea or hand-painted Sabah batik. Whatever your holiday plans are, I hope the 'Sabah Malaysian Borneo' will help you along the way. To all our loyal readers, thank you for your continuous support and we hope to keep you in-the-know and entertained for the next 12 months! Here's wishing you a sunny and very Merry Christmas in the Land Below The Wind.

Jumpa lagi!
