

Guitar Concert with Peter Korbel from Germany, 3 May 2008

Kota Kinabalu Symphony Orchestra is organizing a guitar concert with Peter Korbel, a German Guitarist at Theatre Tun Hamdan (Mini-Theatre), Menara Tun Mustapha, Likas.

The guest conductor for this concert is Mark Eager of University of Cardiff Symphony Orchestra, UK.

Peter Korbel studied classical guitar under Professor Maritta Kersting at the Robert Schumann Conservatory in Dusseldorf (Germany). His extensive concert experience at home and abroad as a soloist and in various types of duos has made him to be one of a small number of successful international working German guitarists.

The highlight of the concert will be the two guitar concertos Peter Korbel is playing with Kota Kinabalu

Symphony Orchestra. The guitar concertos are Concerto in D Major by Antonio Vivaldi and Mauro Giuliani's Guitar Concert in A Major Opus 30.

Peter's guitar performances have been well documented by numerous TV and radio productions in Europe and overseas. He has performed in many countries, including Malaysia and other South East Asia countries. He has produced several CD-recordings, either as a solo guitarist or together with other musicians in duo and chamber music.
