

Sabah Tea Garden

With its sprawling tea plantation surrounded by pristine rainforests in the cool mountain air, the Sabah Tea Garden beckons you to indulge in its beautiful surroundings, away from the hustle and bustle of the city life. A mere 2-hour drive from the city of Kota Kinabalu, the Sabah Tea Garden boasts a beautiful backdrop, Mount Kinabalu. Sabah Tea is the only organic tea farm in Borneo and one of the few in the world. A trip to the tea garden is both educational and fun, one where visitors can enjoy a variety of recreational activities such as obstacle-crossing in the Sapaon Recreational Area, trekking along the trails to the peak of Kamunsu Hill or embarking on a night walk to check out the unique insect life. The Sabah Tea Garden is also perfect for business events and social gatherings, thanks to its excellent facilities and top-notch service. Visitors can opt to camp under the stars or enjoy the three C's of the Sabah Tea Longhouse 1— cleanliness, comfort and a touch of culture! The Longhouse currently exhibits handicrafts from the Bajau, Iranun, Kadazandusun and Rungus ethnic groups. Also in the pipeline is Sabah Tea Longhouse 2 which will house handicrafts of the Murut, Lotud, Lundayeh and Melayu-Brunei people.

The Sabah Tea House is a great place to enjoy a cup of – what else? – Sabah Tea as you indulge in the breathtaking view of hills and valleys. You can also savour freshly made tea pancakes while checking your e-mail via Wi-Fi services. Other facilities include a conference room, a souvenir shop (which now accepts credit card transactions for purchases over RM75.00), a soccer field and tennis court. A stone's throw away from the garden are various places of interests, including the historical Kundasang War Memorial, Kinabalu Park and the rejuvenating Poring Hot Springs. Ask the friendly staff for directions and they will be more than glad to help you out. Be it for business or pleasure, the Sabah Tea Garden awaits you with unforgettable experiences and adventures. A friendly reminder: No trip to the Sabah Tea Garden would be complete without a taste of Sabah's finest tea!
