Saranghaeyo Korea Festival, 24-27 September

The Korea Tourism Organization (KTO) is organising the first-ever Saranghaeyo Korea Festival in Kota Kinabalu, Sabah. This event is held in conjunction with 50 years of diplomatic relations between Malaysia and South Korea as well as to promote bilateral tourism efforts between Sabah and South Korea.

Saranghaeyo (which means 'love') will showcase Korea's unique culture and traditions during the Korean Carnival at the Centre Atrium of the 1Borneo Hypermall in Kota Kinabalu. From 25-27 September, visitors can sample authentic Korean fare, don the national Korean costume, the hanbok, and have a chance to win exciting prizes sponsored by LG, Korean Airlines and Aseana Airlines. On 25 and 26 September, head over to the 1Borneo Grand Ballroom for a wonderful evening of Korean song and dance by a group of 35 performers. Witness the graceful fan dance known as the 'Buchaechum' and 'Salpori', a traditional shamanism dance. Tickets are priced at RM30 and RM50; net proceeds will go to a charitable organization. Tickets can be obtained at the Sabah Tourism Board office on Jalan Gaya or at 1Borneo.

For tickets and further information, please contact the Sabah Tourism Board at 088-212121.

Villagers Honoured at 4th Sabah Environmental Recognition Night

There were plenty of big winners at the recent 4th Sabah Environmental Recognition Night, but outstanding honours were given to the people of Kampung Libang Laut Garas in Tambunan. Led by Hamid Jasmin, the villagers used old automotive parts to build their own 'water wheel' to generate electricity. Other winners that night included Insitute Sinaran, Shangri-La's Tanjung Aru Resort and Spa, Sabahmas Plantations, SAFODA, Penampang Junior Chambers and St. Michael Penampang Secondary School. The winners were acknowledged for their on-going environmental contributions to the state of Sabah.

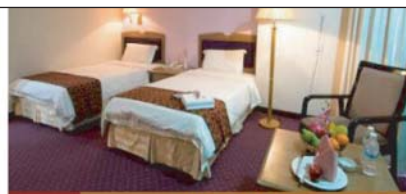

Le Meridien KK Raises Funds for Children during Charity Car Wash

Le Meridien recently organized a fund-raising car wash in aid of a partnership programme between the brand and UNICEF, the United Nation's International Children's Emergency Fund. Led by general manager Harvey J. Thompson, more than 30 volunteer hotel staff took part in this charity event, which raised RM813.00 in one day. Le Méridien Hotels & Resorts supports Check Out for Children, a unique partnership between UNICEF and Starwood Hotels & Resorts. Since 1995, Starwood guests have donated over US$21 million, helping UNICEF to transform children's lives. In Asia and the Pacific, Le Méridien has asked and continues to ask guests to make a donation to fund UNICEF's life-saving immunization programme for children through the Check Out for Children initiative where guests can opt to have the equivalent of US$1 added to their room bill as a contribution to the programme.
